May I know why the below still not fixed? It was reported earlier that the black background is not that was in original HTML. Why you put so much black background?

May I know why the arrangement of the below is not the same as the original?

Below is original:

please see here: http://www.tbm.com.my/admin_html_ecommerce/product_edit.html

Originally it should be resized from "Upload Large Image" Thumbnails displayed on "Products Listing" pages. Thumbnails will be generated from detailed images automatically, but you can also upload them manually below. They can also upload the thumbnail (in category listing page) manually.
